

About Proko.

Proko exists to allow employees to share the best things about their work and workplace.

By combining the benefits of rewards and recognition, storytelling, employee referrals, and recruitment marketing, Proko makes it easy for your employees to share the good things about your culture and career opportunities, or simply recognize the people that are making work great.

How it works.

Proko allows you to customize categories of content that employees can select, personalize, and share.

E-cards, videos and other sharable assets created by your team or ours can be sent to connections, colleagues or easily shared on social pages.

What role or impact would you like to play in relation to equality?

I am very blessed to be a woman in this great country. My deepest wish is that women around the world who are suppressed and brutalized are given the grace and compassion they deserve.
